Band Trips

After careful consideration, a decision has been made to withdraw from the Adrian Carroll Battle of the Bands in Durham, NC.

We are planning to hit the road for the 2016 McDonald's Thanksgiving Day Parade in Chicago on November 22.

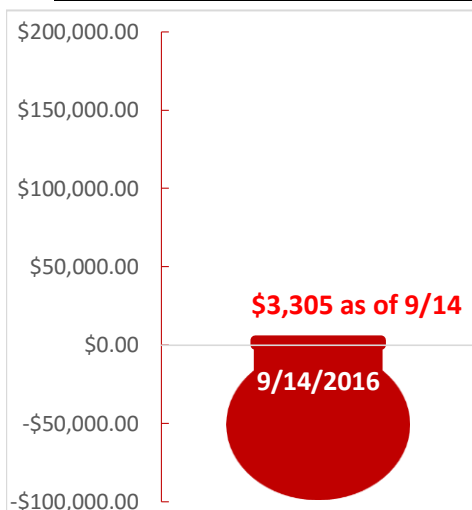

To ensure every student has a seat on the bus, be sure to send an email with your intention to osbornebands@gmail.com and submit a payment of at least $75.00 by 9/22. The revised trip cost is $500.

Fundraising Progress

We are making slow progress, let's get out to the fundraising events and make this bar move!
